

Canada

The Algonquin Regiment

M.L Troy Armouries
540 Chippewa St. W
North Bay, ON

Cassidy Armouries
355 Algonquin Blvd, E.
Timmins, ON

The Algonquin Regiment is an Infantry Unit in the Canadian Army Reserve, as part of the 33 Canadian Brigade Group and has 2 companies in North Bay and Timmins. Members of the Army Reserve are citizens who are paid to take military training on a part-time basis to assist the Regular Force in meeting Canada's military commitments.

In addition to their part-time work members of the Army Reserve can take full-time courses during the summer months, or can apply for full-time positions once they have received sufficient training. Members can also apply for certain postings with Regular Force Units.

The Canadian Army Reserve has many opportunities in a variety of trades. Training is offered on a part-time basis with training on evenings and weekends to work with people who are students and full time employees.

Application Process:

1. Submit Application Form to Recruiter;
2. Receive entire application package via email;
3. Canadian Forces Aptitude Test (CFAT);
4. Non-Prescription Drug Screening;
5. Physical Fitness Evaluation (FORCE);
6. Medical Evaluation;
7. Background/Reference Check;
8. Interview with Recruiting Officer; and
9. Enrolment.

Eligibility Requirements

- Be a Canadian Citizen;
- 18 years old, or 16 with Parental Consent;
- 15 high school credits; and,
- No outstanding legal obligations.

Trades Description

Infantry Soldier are the Army's primary combat fighters and are responsible for closing with and engaging the enemy. They are the core members of the Combat Arms team, which includes Artillery and Armoured Soldiers. Infantry Soldiers are capable of operating anywhere in the world in any environment - Arctic tundra, mountains, jungle or desert - and in any combination of arms, including airmobile and amphibious operations. The primary duties of an Infantry Soldier is to:

- Expertly operate and maintain a wide range of weapons, including rifle, hand-grenades, light, medium and heavy machine-guns, and anti-tank weapons;
- Use sophisticated equipment for field communications, navigation and night-vision surveillance;
- Inspect and maintain weapon systems, vehicles, survival gear and personal defensive equipment;
- Participate in airmobile and amphibious operations;
- Operate with support elements such as fighter aircraft, tactical and artillery;
- Engage in unarmed combat;
- Employ camouflage and concealment, patrol, assault, defense, and escape-and-evasion tactics.

Infantry Officer performs a wide range of duties, from commanding and leading soldiers as part of a team to occupying various staff positions involving planning, training, intelligence, logistics and personnel administration.

---

Algonquin Regiment Recruiter
705-472-9305 ext. 5195
ALQR.Recruiting@forces.gc.ca