1. Introduction

1.1. Purpose

The purpose of this policy is to outline the responsibilities and benefits of NUSU approved clubs, and protect the interests of both NUSU and its recognized clubs by mandating their responsible creation and administration.

1.2. Rationale

Clubs play an extremely vital role in the hosting of extracurricular activities for students both on and off the University campus. The clubs provide both engaging and social environments for students to interact, build relationships, foster a sense of community, and build their skills in an area of interest.

NUSU will provide clubs with basic funding to assist them in facilitating both activities and events that fit within the NUSU mission and vision. As per the policies outlined below, NUSU is responsible for governing and supporting clubs by overseeing their startup and appeals processes; membership eligibility and recruitment; constitutions and executive officers; rights and responsibilities; grants, events, travel and finances; disciplinary measures and club closure.

2. Expectations of a Club

The following list entails the expectations of a NUSU approved club:

- A. The existence and activities of clubs must not impose a legal liability on, or damage the interests of NUSU;
- B. All club-run events are subject to the approval of the Vice-President Student Life;
- C. Clubs ensure that a majority of their membership is composed of University students;
- D. Clubs only financial resources are in accounts managed by NUSU;
- E. Clubs are responsible for compiling and submitting an annual report to the Vice-President Student Life, as well as the Vice-President Finance and Administration at the end of each Fiscal Year;
- F. Clubs are responsible for obtaining and keeping for the year the Clubs Handbook which includes contact information, list of clubs and club emails, a copy of the club policy, list of club forms and when to use them, and how to become RSD approved.
- G. Clubs receive benefits including:
 - i) The opportunity to apply for funding to support club operations and event initiatives;
 - ii) Assistance with club administration, financial resources, and event planning and promotion; and

iii) Assistance in obtaining resources from the University and community.
