

Hello students of Nipissing University,

My name is Erin Creed, I am currently in my third year of a Double Honours Major in Social Welfare & Social Development and Gender Equality & Social Justice, with Concurrent Education. For the 2018-2019 academic year I am running for the position of VP Communications for Nipissing University Student Union (NUSU). Since the beginning of my University career and also in high school I have been overly involved in different forms of student government. Such forms include: Residence Council Executive, Executive for Nipissing University Student Alumni and Executive for Social Welfare Club.

The reason I am involved with these group is the same reason as to why I wish to run for this position. I want to represent the voice of students. Communication is key to making decisions and working through obstacles. Though my opinions may differ from others I am very open minded towards various points of view and want to encourage/connect with students, campus partners and community organizations in order to provide students with loads of volunteer, educational and enjoyable opportunities. The following points mentioned below are what I intend to put forward if I am selected for this position.

- Continuing the develop and broadcast of Social Media accounts for NUSU with Twitter, Instagram, snapchat, Facebook and the NUSU app.
- Strengthen communication networks on and off campus. Meaning responding to different questions, requests or concerns in a timely fashion.
- Develop awareness programs focusing on self-care and mental/emotional wellness.
- Collaborate with on and off campus services to help provide students with support.
- Continue to promote the Health Plan; making sure students are well informed about what it provides
- Run variety of programs that represent: civility, diversity, wellness & creativity
- Manage the NUSU website making sure it clear, concise and professional
- Display relevant and up to date information on the NUSU website about various news and events
